Dear all,
I have no objections to it being in the library.
Many thanks,
best,
orit

Subject: Undergraduate thesis on Knowledge@UChicago (Larkin)

Dear Dr. Orit Bashkin,

My name is Adrian Ho. I am a librarian at the University of Chicago and manage UChicago's institutional repository (Knowledge@UChicago: <https://knowledge.uchicago.edu/>), which provides free online access to the University's research and scholarship.

Davis Larkin (copied on this e-mail) has submitted his undergraduate thesis "Plutonium in the Textile Plant: Israel and America at the Dawn of Non-Proliferation" to Knowledge@UChicago and would like to make it available for download. As Mr. Larkin's academic advisor, do you approve the online availability of the thesis? If so, I will release it on Knowledge@UChicago so that people around the world will be able to access and benefit from Mr. Larkin's research and insights. A digital object identifier (DOI) will be assigned and serve as a persistent link to the thesis.

Please feel free to let me know if you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions regarding this e-mail. I look forward to hearing from you. Enjoy the rest of your week!
